

Beverly Norwood - Plot 126

Plot 126

Price: £150,000

Description

Set within the peaceful surroundings of Long Ashes Park in the Yorkshire Dales, this beautifully presented two-bedroom lodge on Plot 126 offers a refined and relaxing holiday retreat. Spacious, stylish, and thoughtfully designed, the Beverly Norwood is the perfect choice for couples, families, or friends looking to enjoy the tranquillity of countryside living with all the comforts of home.

As you enter the lodge, you're welcomed into a sleek and modern kitchen that has been fitted with everything you need for effortless day-to-day living. Integrated appliances include an oven, gas hob, microwave, fridge freezer, dishwasher, and washing machine, all subtly built into contemporary cabinetry. There's ample cupboard space, clean worktops, and a light, open feel that makes cooking and entertaining a joy.

The living area is bright, spacious, and elegantly furnished with two free-standing sofas positioned around a feature fireplace and coffee table – creating a cosy setting for quiet evenings in or relaxed socialising. Large windows flood the space with natural light and invite in views of the surrounding landscape, offering a seamless connection to the outdoors.

Between the kitchen and lounge sits the dining area, where a stylish table comfortably seats four. This central space is ideal for enjoying meals together, whether it's a quick breakfast before a walk in the Dales or a leisurely dinner shared with guests.

The master bedroom is a true retreat, featuring a king-size bed with a contemporary headboard, bedside tables, and convenient overhead storage. A walk-in wardrobe provides generous space for clothing and belongings, while the private ensuite bathroom includes a shower, basin, and toilet for added privacy and comfort.

The second bedroom is equally well-appointed, with twin beds, a bedside table, overhead storage, and a wardrobe, making it perfect for visiting family or friends. The main bathroom offers a full-size bath with an overhead shower, along with a basin, toilet, and under-sink storage – combining modern convenience with relaxing luxury.

Outside, the lodge benefits from a large, well-maintained private decking area – an ideal spot for morning coffee, alfresco dining, or simply sitting back and enjoying the fresh air. A gravel parking area is located just steps from the front door, ensuring easy access to and from the property.

Stylish, spacious, and set in an idyllic location, the Beverly Norwood on Plot 126 is a superb holiday home that offers a perfect blend of practicality and luxury – an inviting space to relax, recharge, and reconnect with nature in the beautiful Yorkshire Dales.

- 42 ft x 14 ft
- 2 bedrooms
- 2 bathrooms
- Built in fireplace
- Spacious decking area large enough for outdoor furniture
- Steps down to gravel parking area
- License until the end of December 2049

